

April Ledom, Director of Talent Management

April Ledom is the Director of Talent Management for Coxe Curry & Associates. In this role, April manages the human resource functions for the firm, including recruiting, interviewing, hiring, training, employee relations, performance management and professional development.

April previously worked with the Federal Home Loan Bank of Atlanta. For more than a decade she served in a number of human resource positions at the bank, rising from an intern to an assistant vice president. As Assistant Vice President, Employment Manager, she provided strategic direction and managed the day-to-day operations of recruitment, selection and workforce planning. She also oversaw the bank's charitable giving program.

April is certified as a Senior Professional in Human Resources (SPHR) and as a Society for Human Resources Management – Senior Certified Professional (SHRM–SCP). She is a 2007 LEAD Atlanta graduate. In the community, April serves as a member of the executive committee and board of the Anti–Prejudice Consortium. She is a member of the Flint Riverkeeper and has volunteered with Atlanta Community Food Bank, Atlanta Community ToolBank, Atlanta Habitat for Humanity, Atlanta Urban Ministries, Camp Horizon, Junior Achievement, Senior Connections and Visiting Nurse Health Systems of Atlanta.

April graduated with a B.S. in Management from the Georgia Institute of Technology. She and her husband, Matthew, Vice President Engineering, Digital Marketing Solutions at Influence Health and owner of TryCatch Development, have a young daughter, Madalyne, and a newborn son, Frederick.

aledom@coxecurry.com