

Jill Vaysman, Associate Director and Trainer

Jill Vaysman is an associate director and trainer with Coxe Curry & Associates. Her consulting experience includes assessments, feasibility studies, annual funds, and capital campaigns. Currently, she is working with the Atlanta Botanical Garden, Atlanta Speech School, Oak Grove United Methodist Church, Chattahoochee Nature Center and Project Healthy Grandparents, among other clients. From 2007–2012, she provided campaign direction and management for the Woodruff Arts Center’s Annual Corporate Campaign. In addition to her client work, Jill is responsible for onboarding and training Coxe Curry’s campaign management staff.

Prior to joining the firm in 2007, Jill was the coordinator of volunteer services with MY HOUSE, a transitional home for infants and children, affiliated with Emory University. While there, she managed the volunteer program, assisted in prospect cultivation and donor recognition, and coordinated special events.

A native of Louisville, Kentucky, Jill moved to Atlanta in 2001 after graduating Phi Beta Kappa from the University of Georgia with a bachelor of arts degree in psychology. Jill is an active volunteer at Sagamore Hills Elementary and serves on the foundation board of Coralwood School where she is responsible for leading the School’s annual giving drive. She is married to Lev Vaysman, a director of client management with Guidewire Software, and they have two young children.
